

The Wild Orchids of Sèquepeyre

The orchids pictured here were all found in the garden of Sèquepeyre or within a 10 minute stroll of the gîte during the month of May. Many other species will be found in the area later in the flowering season. Above is Lady Orchid Orchis purpurea in the garden of the gîte; it is also common on the roadside verges.

Lady Orchid – Orchis purpurea

Sword-leaved Helleborine – Cephalanthera longifolia

Burnt Orchid – Neotinea ustulata

Pyramidal Orchid – Anacamptis pyramidalis

Tongue Orchid – Serapias lingua

Lizard Orchid – Himantoglossum hercinun

Early Purple Orchid – Orchis mascula

White Orchid – Cephalanthera damasonium

Ploughshare Orchid – Serapias vomeracea

Violet Limodore – Limodorum abortivum

Fly Orchid – Ophrys insectifera

Greater Butterfly-orchid – Platanthera chlorantha

Woodcock Orchid – Ophrys scolopax

Monkey Orchid – Orchis simia

Bee Orchid – Ophrys apifera

Red Helleborine – Cephalanthera rubra

Prepared by Sue Parker FLS and Pat O'Reilly MBE of First-Nature.com